Measurable Skills Gain

The Measurable Skills Gain is defined by USDOL is:

The percentage of program participants who, during a program year, are in an education or training program that leads to a recognized postsecondary credential or employment and who are achieving measurable skill gains, defined as documented academic, technical, occupational, or other forms of progress, towards such a credential or employment. Depending on the type of education or training program, documented progress is defined as one of the following:

1. Documented achievement of at least one educational functioning level of a participant who is receiving instruction below the postsecondary education level;
2. Documented attainment of a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent;
3. Secondary or postsecondary transcript or report card for a sufficient number of credit hours that shows a participant is meeting the State unit's academic standards;
4. Satisfactory or better progress report, towards established milestones, such as completion of OJT or completion of one year of an apprenticeship program or similar milestones, from an employer or training provider who is providing training; or
5. Successful passage of an exam that is required for a particular occupation or progress in attaining technical or occupational skills as evidenced by trade-related benchmarks such as knowledge-based exams.

NOTE: This measure is reported once the Program Year is complete. This is a yearly measure from July 1st to June 30th of a program year.

NextGen Entry Choice for Measurable Skills Gain

EFL gain via credit or Carnegie units towards HS diploma or equivalent

- Used for customers that are receiving HS or GED instruction when they advance an EFL level. (#1 from the definition)

Secondary/PSE transcript/report card

- Used for customers that are enrolled in HS or Post Secondary school and provide their HS report card or Post Secondary School transcripts indicating a gain or advancement. (#3 from the definition)
- Note: #2 from the definition will populate the PIRL from the credential section.

Training Milestone

- Used for customers that receive a progress report or complete a training from an OJT program, Apprenticeship, or other related trainings. (#4 from the definition)

Skills progression

- Used for customers that pass an occupational related exam or show progress in attaining the occupational skills by completing set benchmarks. (#5 from the definition)

Note: Clarity of this measure can be found by contacting WIOApolicy@dol.nj.gov

A participant who has attained a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent is included in the percentage of participants who have attained a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent only if the participant also is employed or is enrolled in an education or training program leading to a recognized postsecondary credential within one year after exit from the program.

FAQs

The customer refuses to provide a SSN. What do I do?

Unfortunately this will make it harder for staff. When a customer refuses to provide their SSN and you still serve them, an automatic wage match cannot occur. This means staff must diligently follow up with customer continuously to obtain pay stubs or other sources of proof of both employment and the amount of wages for a quarter; whether that is by taking a weekly pay stub and multiplying it by the number of weeks in the quarter or some other method. Without this information, this customer will hurt our performance in both the 2nd and 4th quarter employment, and our median wage.

When will the quarterly wage table be populated with employment information?

The quarterly wage table is populated monthly with quarterly wages. As data comes in on the second and third month of a quarter, it is added to any existing data already present for that quarter for the customer. Though staff cannot view the actual wages, if the customer obtained a second job or changed jobs, the new employer information would be present.

The types of skill gains for the measures are confusing. Where can I get clarity?

USDOL has defined the measure but the WIOA Policy unit can be contacted for clarification via WIOApolicy@dol.nj.gov.

FAQs Continued

What type of attachments should I upload in Employment and Training Outcomes?

For both tabs, relevant documentation should be uploaded whenever a new employment and/or training outcome is posted. Items may be credentials, certificates, letters of employment, pay stubs, test scores, and more. The WIOA policy unit can provide recommendations.

Are the EFL gains, pre and post scores, to be entered on the Test tab or Lit/Num?

Though both have been acceptable in the past, the Lit/Num popup is a legacy application in NextGen. From this point forward, the information should be captured on the Test tab by entering the test once for the pre-score and a second time for the post-score. Any subsequent post-scores can be entered as the third and forth line respectively. Currently all previously entered tests on the Lit/Num tab are now also displaying on the test tab.
